Walter King is now acting in the capacity of passenger conductor on the main line. His old position of conductor on the short run west from this point is now filled by Conductor Mollahan.

Portuondo and Public Seal. Best 5c cigars in Williams. G. C. Drug Co.

The moving picture show at the opera house last Saturday evening was very good; that is, the pictures of the damaged city of San Francisco were viewed with interest by a good sized audience.

Houses for rent, partly furnished, if desired. Apply at lumber company office.

M. L. Vaughan, dispatcher at Winslow, accompanied by his wife, stopped off here last Sunday for a few hours' visit with his sons, Earl, Harry and Homer, while on his way to the coast for a short vacation.

For Sale—Well furnished three room house with bath. Inquire at this office.

During the session of court at Flagstaff last week the judge issued an order in the case of Bertie A.
Zauel vs. Henry C. Zauel, allowing the plaintiff the sum of $5 alimony, to be paid weekly, during the pendency of the suit.

Fights were numerous and fierce down the line last Friday night, or Saturday morning. A number of men got worked over and some one took a shot at James Taber, who was visiting here from Ash Fork.
Jim escaped unharmed, however.

Last week we stated that A. H.
Harrell and Hank Ritter were engaged in building some roads at the Grand Canyon. We should have stated that Mr. Harrell has the contract for doing the work and that it is being looked after by his foreman, Mr. Ritter.

Look at the Brand

On our whiskies, table wines, etc., and you will see that they are famous for all that is fine and luscious in these delicate goods. We have the choicest to stock your buffet or wine closet with and you will need to look no further than our business house.

Alex Johnston attended to a very important mission at the Forks last Sunday.

George H. Barney recently receive a consignment of cattle from Tonto Basin.

Vic Melick and Herb Yoder were visitors at Ash Fork last Sunday, looking at a bunch of horses.

R. S. Teeple, manager for Babbitt Bros. at this place, was a business visitor at Ash Fork Tuesday.

For Rent—Nicely furnished front room. Inquire at this office.

Constable C. H. Adams was a visitor at Flagstaff the first of the week, having gone on private business.

"Curley" Wallace will receive at Flagstaff, about the 15th, some 150 head of cattle recently purchased on the Verde.

Canyon road, enjoyed a visit from his sister last Sunday, she having come down from Flagstaff.

Campbell & Francis shipped fifteen double deck cars of sheep to the Kansas City market last Monday evening from Del Rio.

See the summer bargains at the Racket Store.

Harry Cargile made an eighteen mile drive out to the Boyce ranch on Cataract creek last Sunday after a plow wanted by A. H. Harrell.

Two wagon loads of children went out to the old Rawlin homestead Tuesday for a picnic, the event being given by little Miss Margarette Dermont.

Misses Harriette Tefft and Miss Eliza McIntyre accompanied a couple of young lady friends to Ash Fork Sunday, who were on their way south from Flagstaff.

Wanted—A boot and shoemaker.
None but first class mechanic need apply.
JAMES IRVINE,
Williams, Ariz.

Ed. Grose came up from Prescott last week and with his wife has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs.
James Kennedy. Mr. and Mrs.
Grose returned home Tuesday.

Pius Fatic went down to Del Rio last Sunday and returned the following evening in charge of a car of mutton for Jacob Salzman, purchased of Campbell & Francis.

Latest thing in shirt waists from 75c up.
RACKET STORE.

Pius Fatic states that on account of "Hoopy" he has decided to withdraw from the public wedding entry, even though he has been guaranteed a baby buggy and cradle.

The town pumps are now in position at the various wells and make a good appearance, with the neat fences around them, to say nothing of the convenience they afford the public.

If you want goods of any description stored safely away, or any transfer work done, call on Harry Cargile. Phone 2-8.

Mr. W. I. Swain, owner of the Jesse James shows, was a visitor at the Canyon the first of the week, availing himself of the opportunity to see the great gorge during his company's stop here.

Street Supervisor James Ragan has the streets looking first class now, the rubbish and paper having been removed from them. Clean streets and good sidewalks are a good thing for a town and Williams is now pretty well blessed with both.

C. R. Palmer and family returned to the city last Monday from Flagstaff, where they had been visiting for a few days. Mr. Palmer had been somewhat under the weather and the rest was beneficial, so after making out his reports they again returned to Flagstaff.

On No. 2 last Monday evening Dr. A. Tyroler and family passed through the city en route east for a visit at different points. They will be for a time at Cleveland, Ohio, where they will enjoy themselves as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H.
Harrison, the latter being a sister of the doctor.

Ten dozen children's and ladies' hats from 25c up. Racket Store.

Last Sunday morning a freight car got loose in the east yards and ran down the track, meeting an engine in charge of Engineer S. O.
Miller. The car got the worse of the encounter, and was damaged so badly that the services of the wrecker had to be called into use to clear the track.

Have one five-room house left.
For sale cheap. OTTO LEBSCHE.

Geo. H. Barney and family departed this week for the M. C. ranch, where they will make their headquarters for the summer. They were accompanied by Miss Charlotte Gordon, who will remain with them for a time. During their absence Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wood will occupy their home.

We sell Hill & Hill whiskey, International, Jose Villa, and Palidad cigars; Budweiser, Pabst's Export and Joe's beer.

BAUMGARTNER & SATORI.

Tom Terry arrived here again last week from Oklahoma after a car load of horses, which he will take to the eastern market. He will be remembered as the young man who brought out Willie C., the sorrel which was entered in the races here on the Fourth last year. The horse was purchased by C. B. Holloway and later sold by him at Phoenix.

Go to the Keystone-Monogram for the best wines, liquors and cigars. B. F. Sweetwood, proprietor.

George McDougall and family returned to the city last Monday from their week's outing at the ranch of Mrs. McDougall's father, John Kempter, some miles south of Williams. "Scotty" says he greatly enjoyed himself, as did his family. He has been having his residence in the city painted and same now presents an excellent appearance.

It is intended for those who appreciate quality, for gentlemen who enjoy a thoroughly matured, rich Old Kentucky liquor—I. W. HAR-PER whiskey. Sold by J. B. Jones.

Mrs. D. J. Creighton and daughter, Miss Alice, who have been visiting in the city for the past two weeks as the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
W. L. Harris, departed for their home at San Francisco last Monday. Mr. Creighton has again opened up in the book-making business there, and having secured a nice flat for his family at 2679 Mission street, was desirous of having them join him at once.

If you want window glass, paint, oil, wall paper, picture mouldings, varnish, brushes, etc., please call on J. C. Simmons, across the street from the postoffice.

J. M. Goulding, assistant manager of the Grand View hotel at Grandview, Arizona, returned last Sunday evening from the coast, accompanied by his bride of a few days. On the 31st of May, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D.
Blaney, in Pasadena, Cal., at high noon, Mr. Goulding and Miss Stella Rose, formerly of Oakland, Cal., were married by the Rev. Dr. Meredith, only a few friends of the bride and groom being present.

Having rented the Cap. P. Smith corral, I am now prepared to care for and accommodate outfits of any size. Will conduct a regular feed and sales corral. HARRY CARGILE.

Mr. and Mrs. Yager returned to their home at Winslow last Saturday evening from California, where they had been for a few days attending Mr. R. K. Farnsworth, the father of Mrs. Yager. In a letter received too late for publication in our last issue, Mr. Farnsworth said: "I am not able to be out, and am confined to my bed. I have had another stroke of paralysis and cannot write; my arms are useless.
I hope to be better in a few days. I am going to try and get up again, but I hardly think I will be able to go through the campaign this fall."
